City of Ionia to Host State of the City Address on March 5

Ionia, Michigan, Monday, February 10, 2025 – The City of Ionia is pleased to announce that the annual State of the City Address will take place on Wednesday, March 5, 2025, at 6:30 PM during the regular City Council meeting at Ionia City Hall, 114 N. Kidd Street.

Mayor John R. Milewski, II will deliver the address, highlighting significant accomplishments and key projects completed over the past year. The State of the City provides an opportunity for residents, business owners, and community stakeholders to gain insight into the City's progress and future initiatives. Themes featured in this year's update include:

- Telling our Story
- Marking Milestones
- Celebrating Successes
- Trusting the Process
- Saying Goodbye and Hello
- Planning our Future
- Giving Thanks

"We are excited to share the many successes of the past year and discuss the opportunities that lie ahead for Ionia," said Mayor Milewski. "This is a time to reflect on our achievements and reaffirm our commitment to continued growth and improvement."

The event is open to the public, and community members are encouraged to attend. For those unable to attend in person, a copy of the presentation will be available for viewing on the City's website following the meeting.

City Manager Precia Garland added, "The State of the City Address is a valuable opportunity for our community to come together and recognize the hard work that has gone into making Ionia a better place to work or call home. We look forward to engaging with residents and providing updates on important City projects."
